

Programme for “Children, Health and The Law” conference, Friday 3rd October 2014

9.00-9.30am	Registration and Coffee
9.30-9.45am	Welcome and Introductions: by conference chair Frances Judd QC (Harcourt Chambers)
9.45-10.15am	Keynote Speech: Mr Justice Hayden
10.15-11.00am	Transition planning for young people in care with continuing health needs: Elizabeth Isaacs QC (St Ives Chambers)
11.00 – 11.30	Coffee Break
11.30-12.00pm	Safeguarding in an acute setting: Penny Owston, Non - Executive Director at United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust
12.00-12.30pm	The Importance of GPs working with Social Services: Dorothy Simon, NSPCC External Neglect Advisory Group, Essex Legal Services.
12.30-1.00pm	Recognising early signs of abuse & early intervention: Dr Lean, Consultant Paediatrician, Guernsey.
1.00-2.00pm	LUNCH
2.00-2.30pm	Should doctors know more about the law and lawyers know more about medicine when considering non-accidental injury? Dr Michael Wailoo LLB retired Paediatrician, Leicester
2.30-3.00pm	Legal Aspects of Consent to Medical Treatment and Safeguarding: Nick Goodwin QC
3.00-3.30pm	Consent to medical treatment by minors: Dr Mark Jones (Consultant Paediatrician, Jersey)
3.30-4.00pm	Tea Break
4.00-4.30pm	The impact of maltreatment and parental conflict on children’s mental health: Dr Miriam Silver, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Milton Keynes
4.30-5.00pm	The impact of MASH on joined up thinking for children with health needs: Sean Pontin, Children’s Service, Jersey
5.00-5.15pm	Question time: Panel of conference speakers, led by Advocate Barbara Corbett, Partner and Head of Family Law at Hanson Renouf.
5.15-5.30pm	Closing remarks: Frances Judd QC